Soft Smooth Skin

Seems odd to talk about smooth skin when this weather has been spoiling everybody's hair, making them rough and unsightly. But we have helped lots of people to keep their hands smooth, well and comfortable. Just see how badly they were chapped before. It only takes a few words to tell you the secret—it's

Pensar

Almond and Cucumber Cream

and, our word for it, this is the finest, daintiest application for the hands and skin that is in our big stock of toilet things. Two sizes, 25 and 50 cents.

If you know as much about Pensar as we do you would expect this to be the best thing of the kind—as it is. For Pensar means Highest Quality every time you see it.

Ollie Will Not Mix In Senate Contest

Senator-elect Ollie M. James gave out the following statement when asked his views from a report from Cincinnati that Judge Albie W. Young, in an interview in that city, had said Mr. James, with the state patronage at his disposal, could name the next Senator from Kentucky:

"I do not claim the right to name the next Senator from Kentucky. That is the high prerogative that belongs to the splendid Democracy of the State, and it is one that I could not usurp if I would, and I would not if I could. The Democracy of that great State has honored me highly by electing me as Senator to serve them in one of the lawmaking branches of the republic, and not to dictate to them whom they should select as my colleague. I have never believed that it was a part of my official duty to undertake to create myself as a boss over those whose servant I am."

After a hearty meal, take Doan's Reglets and assist your stomach, liver and bowels. Reglets are a mild laxative. 25¢ at all stores.

Commercial Paper in Banking.

When a merchant gives his paper to the bank for a loan, it may not be salable outside the merchant's community, because the merchant's standing may not be widely known. That is why so much of the paper our banks deal in is of strictly local character, and is valueless as an asset when the bank needs funds to accommodate customers. If we had a system for giving such paper a national market, as it has abroad, this difficulty would be removed. At present our banks prefer stocks and bonds to commercial paper as security, because they can more readily convert stocks and bonds into funds when in need. No reform of our banking system will be fair to the merchant or to the whole business community which does not put commercial paper in the place it deserves, the very best basis of credit.

Mr. J. W. Taylor, who has been with the Todd-Edwards Co. for some time, has bought out the interest of Ex-Congressman D. C. Mr. Taylor is a Madison product, has youth and energy and is every way equipped to keep the business at the high standard at which it has been for years.

It has long been a Democratic custom in Madison county to give a second term to those officials who perform their duty well during the first term of office, and you can make no mistake by deciding to cast your vote for R. B. Terrill for re-election to the office of County Court Clerk. His record is open for the closest inspection.

I'd like to be rich—there is pleasure in money, It's good stuff to have and it's good stuff to spend; It helps you to pay for your milk and your honey I'd like to be rich, but I'd never be willing To pay such a price as some men do for gold; The cost is too high and the pace is too killing. And too many things must be bartered and sold. I'd like to be rich—and I wonder who wouldn't; And yet if it cost me what some people pay, I'd try to be rich and I'd find that I couldn't. In Memory of Heaven.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Shearer, Ernest, who fell asleep in Jesus, Dec. 11, 1912. Darling boy, you have left me one long week since you have gone, but I know you are safe in heaven mingling with the happy throne. How we watch to see you coming. How we listen to hear you call. How we miss you darling baby, one we loved so dear to all, we have lost our darling boy. He has gone to live in heaven, and his presents are lost to view. O, that darling, how we loved him. O, how hard to give him up, but an angel come down from heaven and summoned him from our flock. His busy hands are folded, his work on earth is done, his tasks are all ended, his heavenly crown is won, past his suffering, past his pain ceased to weep for tears are rain, calm the tempest of your breast for he who suffered is now at rest. Painlessly he bore his suffering, loving hands did all they could, but God took him from our family, as dear mother thought. He would just cross the silver river, over in the Happy land, where there is no pain, no parting, that will grieve God's chosen band. Funeral services were conducted at the family graveyard at one o'clock by Sister Burke. There is sorrow felt in every heart for the brave parents over the loss of their child, aged two years.

Nettie Shearer.

Wealth.

I'd like to be rich—there is pleasure in money,

It's good stuff to have and it's good stuff to spend;

It helps you to pay for your milk and your honey

I'd like to be rich, but I'd never be willing

To pay such a price as some men do for gold;

The cost is too high and the pace is too killing.

And too many things must be bartered and sold.

I'd like to be rich—and I wonder who wouldn't;

And yet if it cost me what some people pay,

I'd try to be rich and I'd find that I couldn't.

There is too much worth while that is lost by the way

To sacrifice friends and ideals to render

My heart and my conscience, my soul and my mind,

And sell all my dreams for a dollar-marked splendor

Would leave me too poor for the riches I'd find.

I'd like to have wealth if I made it by toiling

Or keenness and cleverness canny—but fair,

But never by cheating and spoiling,

I'd like to be rich—but I'd rather be square.

Richmond men are highly gratified over the Christmas trade. Many of them brought on big stocks of holiday gifts and the like and they were for the most part disposed of. The out-of-town trade came fully up to expectations while the town people bought heavily. Most of the sales were of the substantial kind and very little money was foolishly spent. There was very little shooting of firecrackers and the like and the Christmas just ended was a sane one in every respect, to the credit of our people be it said.

J. S. Baughman and B. G. Fox bought a car load of broken mules for Judge McLeanahan, of Franklin, paying $180 to $225. They were shipped to Lexington, Ky., by Mr. Fox, sold for Mr. William Spillman, a car load of advertising signs to Callahan's Painter, of Tennessee, at $125. He sold a car of two-year-old mules to Warren and Jones, of Dunn, N. C.—Danville Messenger.

T. W. Jones shipped to Cincinnati early in the week a car load of hogs and cattle. The hogs were bought at 5 1/2 to 6 cents and the cattle at 3 to 4 1/4 cents. He shipped two loads later, paying for hogs 5 1/2 to 6 1/2 cents and for the cattle 3 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents. W. Gaines sold to Morgan Beazley a pair of 2 year old mules for $400. They are as handsome a pair as can be found in Lincoln county.—Stanford Inter-Journal.

Few mules changed hands at Lancaster Court most of the owners asking sky high prices for them. A number that were extra classy were bought, but the offerings were not large. W. B. Burton purchased five extra toppy fellows for a foreign buyer at $200 a head. The were two or three hundred cattle on the market, and quite a number changed hands, at from 5 to 5 1/2 cents, according to quality offered. Few were better than medium grade.

The largest cattle sale made in Boyle County in many years was closed Tuesday, when Mr. J. C. Caldwell sold 323 head of extra high class exporters to Mr. Monte Fox, of this city, and Mr. James Brown, of Chicago. The entire bunch averaged 1425 pounds and the price was $7.85 per hundred. It took eighteen freightcars to transport the porters to New York. They were bought for the New York Butchers Dressed Meat Company. The total purchase price was $26,000—Danville Advocate.

Good Resolutions.

The good season of the year is at hand when we take inventory of our mental stock, and turn over a series of new leaves in the book of good resolutions.

We recall that we were much amused some years ago over the appearance of two editorials in the same day in two New York newspapers—The Journal and The World. One of the papers advised its readers by all means to make good resolutions; that even if he will be lame as time went on, and we failed to carry them out, the very fact of making the resolution strengthened the good motive in the heart, and so on.

The other paper said in effect: Out and ay with this antiquated practice of making good resolutions. Not one in a thousand ever lived up to the resolutions that he made and the fact of his failure would exert a tendency to discourage him, and cause a let down of his will power.

They were one man opinions, of course, and perhaps each man's viewpoint was colored by his personal experience.

Doubtless the man that wrote advising his readers to make good resolutions had achieved to one or two or gotten good results. Whereas the other doubtless had experienced just what he advised that his readers would experience; he had failed; got back in a few weeks or a few days into the old rut, and felt a general discouragement against a system which had shown him so clearly his own weakness of will.

We must say that this making of good resolutions looks to be pretty good practice to us. It is for the purpose of forming resolutions that we take stock of the past year's achievements and failures.

And there is no more wholesale moral and mental exercise than this sorting over past events, and the determining of what qualities brought them about.

If you have failed in certain undertakings during the year just ended there has been a cause; and rest assured the cause lies within yourself. Just as you are individually responsible for all that good that comes out of your efforts.

We sincerely believe that more than half of the failures of the world are due to our inability or our willful neglect of studying properly the relation of cause and effect in our lives.

It is unquestionably the first duty of every man who is living this life for the purpose of getting somewhere, early to form a philosophy of life. To determine this as nearly as he can, first, what he proposes to do, and secondly, how best to do it.

One of the best resolutions for the new year would be to resolve to create the habit of observing the men and women with whom we come in contact with the hope that we may get some fact from their lives to aid us in our personal struggle.

The democratic press of this State is to be congratulated on the splendid resolutions adopted at the meeting held in Louisville during the past week.

The spirit forth of high and intelligent ideals in the treatment of political affairs is most commendable and admirable.

If the policy is carried out, and we have ever reason to believe that it will, it will mean a great deal to the uplift of politics in this grand old State.

We creators of good for the newspaper, who will inspire the public life, the newspapers, to do enough to discourage the authority and to attract those whose character and ability fit them for service.

Insistence that appointments shall be based on merit and not used as mere political rewards elementary as it may seem.

The spirit of good government, it is so fundamentally sound and practical, and at the same time so much neglected that the press of the State undertake a useful service when it pledges itself to this policy.

Let us all join in the hope that this good beginning will bear fruit in still better things. Adherence to the principles embodied in the resolution means clearing the columns of the newspapers of much useless and actually vicious matter. Such space can not be better used than for educational purposes. There is room for an improvement in the newspaper work of the Kentucky press boys and we are indeed glad that they propose to take hold in the right way and fight for the betterment of conditions all along the lines.

James R. Ross, for a number of years editor of the Lexington Leader, has resigned his position to become managing editor of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Record, the new turf journal which recently took over the Kentucky Stock Farm.

He will be succeeded by Prof. A. C. Cochran, formerly connected with a Cheyenne, Wyo., paper.

Mr. Ross has made good on the Leader, as we are sure he will on the Record.

MAJOR LEONARD WOOD, chief of staff of army, will have the honor of conducting the inaugural parade when Governor Wilson will be induced into the office of President of the United States.

Major Wood, who served the country so valiantly in the time of the Spanish-American war, can now do a great service in time of peace, that of aiding in placing a Democratic President at the head of the Nation.

James R. Gibson, of this city, is an applicant for Collector of this district. That he will fill the office most creditably and acceptably there is no shadow of doubt, and that he has thousands of friends who would like to see him land the juice place is just as certain.

Major Wood is big and bold of heart.

Mr. Gibson's appointment to the office would meet with approval from all who know this splendid gentleman, whom to know is to admire.

A good, consistent democrat, a worker for and contributor to the party of parties, he is deserving of all the good things that democracy can bestow upon him.

In the event he is appointed we have assurance that he will move the office to this good beginning will bear fruit in still better things. Adherence to the principles embodied in the resolution means clearing the columns of the newspapers of much useless and actually vicious matter. Such space can not be better used than for educational purposes. There is room for an improvement in the newspaper work of the Kentucky press boys and we are indeed glad that they propose to take hold in the right way and fight for the betterment of conditions all along the lines.

The Atlanta Journal quotes that the only sure way for a man to win an argument with a woman is to state his side of his case and then slam the door and leave. But what genuine Southerner would argue with a delightful Southern woman, much less slam a door in her face. Southern girls know no such infraction of etiquette, to say nothing of decency.

A New Jersey woman lost $400 when her stocking broke loose from its mooring while out Christmas shopping. When the finder put the money in circulation, for certainly the good woman had no intention of spending it, for how could she have gotten at it to spend even if she had so desired?

GOV. B. L. E. BURKE, of South Carolina, brought himself into further disrepute by pardoning eighty-odd convicts on Christmas day. The list includes five death-murder prisoners down to those convicted for minor infractions of the law.

The fact that threats have been made to blow up the mint at Denver, has caused Uncle Sam some worry over his money plant. The average citizen can not appreciate what a great "snub" it must be, as he has very little of the coin and no plant to worry about.

Mrs. PLANCHER, whose cartoons have been really the only things worth while in the Louisville Post, will go to the Louisville Times today, which will then leave its contemporaries so far in the rear that it won't be regarded in the race.

Mrs. GEORGE D. WIDENER has given orders for the addition of a single room to her palatial residence in Newport, to cost a round million dollars. And this in the day of high cost of living.

THE MONTGOMERY ADVERTISER says that the "Solid South is broke at last," but we are mighty glad to add that it was Old Santa rather than Terrible Teddy who broke it.

On New Year's Day the Chinese pay off all debts, thus putting "good results" into action. If you owe the Chinaman anything, suppose you be him.

Gov. MCGRATH admits that he is considering announcing for U. S. Senator.

The public has known that since Jan. 1st, 1912.

TWO DANCES MONDAY NIGHT.

The Young Men's Club gave a highly popular dance at Masonic Temple Monday night. Many of the best of city and county were present and everybody had a big time.

Motor Bus Quits. The Motor Bus which began on Nov. 23rd to make daily trips between this city and Lexington, has given up the ghost until spring time comes with better weather. Lack of patronage and heavy roads are given as the reason for stopping the bus for a while. Until spring Mr. Thomas, we are informed, will run his big machine between Lancaster and Nicholasville, making daily round-trips between those places. Card of Thanks. We desire to express our hearty appreciation of the liberal patronage given us by the good people of Richmond and Madison county during the year 1912, and to solicit a continuance of your business during the ensuing year, guaranteeing the same honest work that we feel is largely responsible for the growth of our business during the past year. Very cordially, W. M. & H. K. BOWMAN.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

[From a series of elaborate chemical tests.]

Comparative digestibility of food made with different baking powders.

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of two kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, such for the same length of time.

The percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:
99 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder:
67 Per Cent. Digested

Royal Baking Powder raised food is shown to be of greatly superior digestibility and healthfulness.

NEWS NOTES

The Interpreter.
I saw some of my people near Whiteside's Letcher County, and for 7,500.

County Judge William H. Rice of Mayville, celebrated Christmas day by marrying his 800th couple.

Lexington W. C. T. U. women baked 91 cakes and sent them to the convicts at Frankfort on Christmas day.

The four members of the family of Edward H. Miller were killed at Champaign, Ill., by being struck by the Illinois Central Panama Limited.

J. Pierpont Morgan heard a hard luck story of a washerwoman on Christmas eve and on the following day he sent his check for $10,000.

Free Hills, who weighed 400 pounds, is dead in Covington. His widow had to have a casket made for him because he could not buy one large enough.

One suffragette, walking from New York City to Albany, announced to her colleagues that she would be married in a few days and dropped out of the fight.

The Nichols of Boyle had had the county clerk's office in their family for 70 years. The present incumbent John B. Nichols, is holding office for his fifth term. His father, his uncle and his brother have also held the office.

After murdering his wife by almost severing her head from her body, Philip Jordan, a machine operator of Louisville, Holy House. He claims that Shouse had mistreated his sister and when he remonstrated with him he was shot with a knife. McCaffrey used a shot gun and died only once.

Six men were found guilty at Booneville, Owsley county, were found guilty of the murder of Dock Gabbard and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Three of the men charged with the commission of the crime, were acquitted. The men convicted were: W. E. Rice, Jerry Rice, Bradley Daniel, Ancil Vires, James Smith and Harry Sandlin.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dysart, would you not like to know what your stomach troubles are over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but let us assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with stomach trouble and lived on a diet of raw vegetables and live tablets until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by all dealers.

Home Helps.

Some people brush pastry over with a thick syrup just before baking in order to have a rich glaze when it is done.

Wasbing soda is excellent for removing stains from graniteware.

Copper utensils are more readily cleaned if warm than if cold.

Do not allow butter or milk to remain uncovered in the refrigerator. They absorb odors very quickly.

Try adding a pinch of soda to the apple sauce just before removing from the fire.

Talents for the Law.

"I'm certain, William," she began
"When Johnny grows to be a man,
And his mind's bias finds expression,
He'll choose the medical profession."
Last night I noticed at the table,
How thoughtfully he caressed Mabel,
About the hurtfulness of pique.

"His talents," William answered, "lie
Judging from what I heard and saw,
Rather along the lines of law."

Though all he told her might be true,
It was his pique and Mabel's too.

The Sore Point.

The New York Times protests very loudly against any plan of financial relief that recognizes government control. By so doing it betrays the secret motive of the Aldrich plan. The men who are back of the effort to secure a central bank and asset currency talk loudly
about the need of an elastic currency
but the moment a plan is suggested which gives the elasticity desired, it is viciously attacked, unless it includes further privilege to the banking fraternity.

The New York Times speaks for Wall street, but Wall street will not be permitted to write the banking laws of the country any longer. Governor Wilson in the discussion of public questions has very properly insisted that the laws shall be written from the standpoint of the whole people and not from the standpoint of the of the special interests.

It is fortunate for the country that we are to have a president who considers the interests of the general public and not the demands of the interested few in framing legislation.—Bryan's Comment.

The Choice of a Husband.

When Charlie Conroy, 8 years old, got up Christmas morning he found the getter sent to "Santa Claus, State House, Trenton" had been answered by Gov.
Wilson.

Charlie asked for a sweater, a pair of gloves, a necktie, a cap, two books, a train of cars, a box of blocks, and some candy and fruit.

President-elect Wilson was so impressed that he had one of his stenographers
send Charlie all the things he asked for.

$5 Postage Stamps.

Starting figures are shown indicating the amount and value of United States stamps used during the year. More than nine billion stamps have been sold, and the stamp collectors are still busy. As an evidence of prosperity it is interesting to note that there is a five-dollar postage stamp, more than 11,500 of which were sold last year, and besides these more than 80,000 of the one-dollar denomination.

It has been estimated that more than three million stamps per day were used by the people of the United States last year. As one French humorist remarked in England, "That shows that the American people are certainly used to licking." He thought he had sprung a real joke, but was surprised to hear the apt reply, "Yes we lick the stamp to keep it trim for licking the other fellows." The American eagle screamed at the flag unfurled, and the American people glorified the dignity of Uncle Sam by a pertinent allusion to the "Affair of the Lump."—Affair

Pie, Uncle Sam, etc. for

Here's a sock
that all men have been looking for.

You demand trim fitting hose—
our own fancy as to weight socks would be—if you have any favorite colors, you will wear Wunderhose
your everlasting satisfaction.

If you are a bachelor—the guarantee feature is especially attractive—there are no darning troubles
because new Wunderhose are given free for any that punch through the heel, toe or sole within four months
of their purchase.

It is surely worth an extra premium to be insured against such an annoyance, and yet the price carries a penalty for this extra service.

Here's a child's stocking that won't need darning.

The terrors of school days, and play days for the boy or girl who is hard on stockings are troubles that are banished with the wearing of Wunderhose.

Trim fitting stockings that are “puncture proof” in heel, toe or sole—light or medium weight, as desired. Every size for the toddler, the boy about to graduate to the sock age or the young lady about to adopt long skirts.

Four pairs packed in a box $1.
A true black and a true tan. If a single pair needs darning within four months after purchase you don't dare
miss them, exchange them here for brand
new Wunderhose, free.

Here's a woman's stocking of quality
and wear.

You are proud of Wunderhose once they grace your feet. The way they fit and the way they wear is a revelation.

Their dye is one of their superlative features. The brightest, truest, surest, most lasting black and the richest shade of tan known to hosiery making. Made for all ages and sizes, for women and men.

Four pairs to the box $1, or a de-luxe grade, three pairs to the box $1. The Wunderhose guarantees insures the toe, heel and sole against need of darning.

DANGER FROM GRIPPE

Lies in That Cough and Weak, Worn-out Condition.

Grippe, pleurisy, pneumonia, these are greatly to be feared at this time of the year.

To prevent grippe from being followed by either pleurisy or pneumonia, it is important to drive the last traces of it out of the system quickly.

Our advice is to take Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron preparation without oil, and get your strength and vitality back quickly.

Mrs. A. A. Grabill, of Strasburg, Va. says: “Grippe left me weak, rundown and with a severe cough, from which I suffered four years. I tried different remedies, but nothing seemed to do me any good until I took Vinol,
which I found great benefit.

My cough is almost entirely gone, and I am strong and we again, and I am glad to recommend Vinol to others who suffer as I did.”

Try Vinol with the certainty that if it does not benefit
you will give back your money.

What Makes a Woman? ■
One hundred and twenty pounds, more or less, of bone and muscle doesn't make a woman. It is a good foundation.
Put into it health and strength and she may run like a deer, jump like a rabbit and electric batters give her. Thousands bless them for overcoming fainting and dizzy spells and for dispelling weakness, nervousness, backache and tired, listless feeling. Electric batters do more for the body than any food, writes Eliza Pool, Depew, Okla. “and I thank you with all my heart for making such a good medicine.” Only 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

To Some Little Girl, Under
14, in this City.
Who's going to be the Lucky Little Girl? You?

You're going to try, anyhow, aren't you?
Then come right down to our store, get a picture and a nice little box containing 7
yours and at once start coloring the picture.
You'll have lots of fun doing it, girls, and then, besides all that fun, to the little girl most artistically, most neatly colors her picture, and on a separate slip of paper
the most interesting short story, telling why she will have a “Buck's” stove of her own when she has a home of her own, we will give the little Range that's now show in our front window.
Come, girls, all try.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: “There is almost no relation between eczema and diet. The skin must be cured through the skin.
The germs must be washed out, and so soaps and oils are used. The best soap is the best oil. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and have abandoned the use of oil for the cure of eczema. The best oil is olive oil. Thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: “I am convinced that the best oil for eczema is olive oil. I have described the D.D.D. remedy for eczema. I will send away the itch cream to you for free.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D.
will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee. The cost of the oil is nothing unless you want to use it.
